Rules and Regulations

Classifications

This is a Traditional Southern Lion Dance Competition. The ultimate objective of the lion's quest must be one (1), or more, of the following:

- Choi Cheng/Cai Qing (採青/采青) - "Picking Greens"
- Choi Lingji/Cai Lingzhi (採靈芝/采灵芝) - "Picking Mushroom / Flower of Immortality (Ganoderma Lucidum)"
- Choi Jau Cheng/Cai Jiu Qing (採酒青/采酒青) - "Picking Wine"

NOTES:

1. A flower can be used to represent a cheng or lingji.
2. Not including and "picking" one of these three objects in the routine is considered a mistake and will result in a deduction in the team's final score.
  - a. Picking a cheng or lingji must include the actions of taking, eating and spitting.
  - b. Picking wine consists of taking and drinking.
  - c. The pick is not complete if all of these actions are not clearly demonstrated.

Definition of Terms

- Cheng/Qing (青) = Greens, mushroom, or wine jug

Categories

- Traditional Lion Dance (March 17, 2024)*
Open to all
- Women Lion Dance (March 17, 2024)*
Lion head and tail must be women
- Youth Lion Dance (March 17, 2024)*
Lion head and tail must be 12 years or younger on March 16, 2024

*If the necessary amount of registrations for any of these categories are not met by December 1, 2023 there is a possibility of that event being canceled by the tournament director.

1. Participants

- 1.1 Participants can only represent one (1) School. Within each category that a participant is qualified to compete, lion dancers and drummers may only dance or drum for one (1) team per School. The lion dancers and drummers can be part of a different team for their school as long as they are performing in a different role.

As long as they meet the category requirements:

- The same drummer can drum for all three (3) categories representing one (1) school.
- Lion head and lion tail dance as a pair for all three (3) categories representing one (1) school as long as they meet the requirements.

Judging Guidelines

Definition Of Terms

- Valid Scores are the evaluation judges' scores selected to calculate the deserved score using the valid Score Selection rules.
- Deserved Score is calculated based on the average of the valid scores.
- Basic Score is a score assigned by the chief judge when the valid scores are in violation of the rules set out in Regulations for the Differences between valid Scores.
- Final Score is the result of applying the chief judge's deductions to the deserved score.

1. Judging

- 1.1 The panel of judges consists of one (1) chief judge and five (5), seven (7) or nine (9) evaluation judges.
- 1.2 The chief judge has the right to call for a conference if there are any issues with the performance or discrepancies between judges.
- 1.3 All decisions made by the judges are final.

2. Scoring Order

- 2.1 Evaluation judges will provide scores following each performance.
- 2.2 All the evaluation judges will meet with the chief judge after the first performance to ensure scoring consistency prior to providing scores. Additional conferences can be called on subsequent performances if the chief judge determines they are necessary.

3. Valid Score Selection

- 3.1 If there are five (5) evaluation judges, the highest and the lowest scores will be regarded as invalid.
- 3.2 If there are seven (7) evaluation judges, the two (2) highest and two (2) lowest scores will be regarded as invalid.
- 3.3 If there are nine (9) evaluation judges, the two (2) highest and two (2) lowest scores will be regarded as invalid.

4. Regulations For the Differences Between Valid Scores

- 4.1 The difference between scores should not be more than 0.2 when the deserved score is 9.5 points and above.
- 4.2 The difference between scores should not be more than 0.3 when the deserved score is in the 9 - 9.5 point range.
- 4.3 The difference between scores should not be more than 0.5 when the deserved score is below 9 points.

2024 Phoenix Lion Dance Championships

Traditional Lion Dance Rules & Regulations

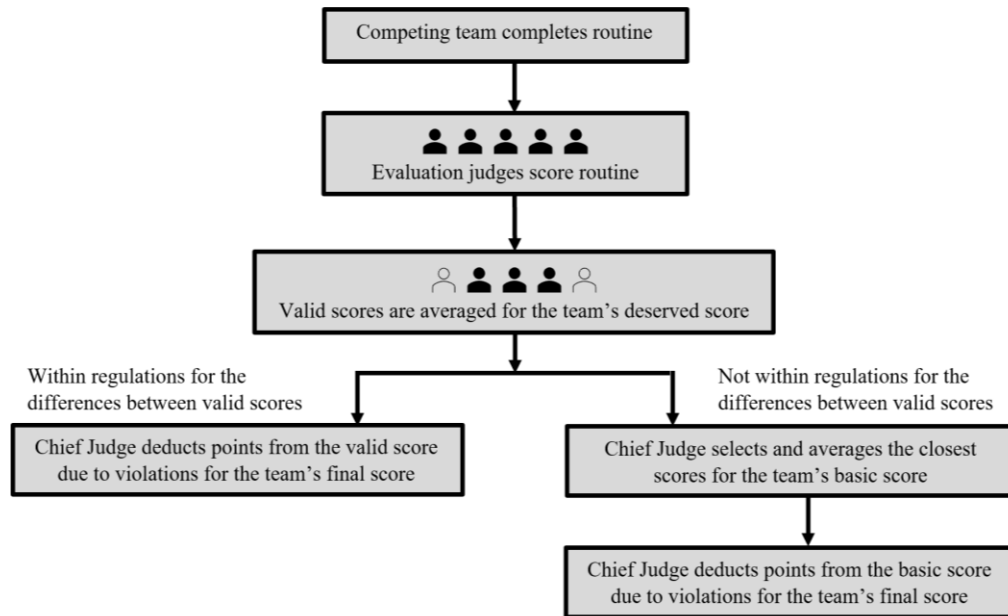

- 4.4 The chief judge selects a score to be used as the basic score when the difference between the valid scores of the evaluation judges is in violation of the rules set out in Regulations for the Differences between valid scores. This basic score is then used with the two (2) or four (4) closest valid scores to calculate the team's deserved score.

5. Final Score

- 5.1 The team's final score is the result of applying the chief judge's deductions to the deserved score.
